TV Town Hall airing Feb. 16

=====

The Fort Hood and III Corps Commanding General, Lt. Gen. Bob Cone, will host a live TV Town Hall call-in program 7-8 p.m. Tuesday.

In his final town hall address to the community before deploying to Iraq, Cone will give an overview of the state of the installation and then will be joined by a panel of Fort Hood leaders to discuss behavioral health.

The broadcast panel includes Col. Bill Hill, garrison commander, Col. Steven Braverman, Carl R. Darnall Army Medical Center commander, and Col. Bill Rabena, commandant of Fort Hood's Resiliency Campus.

The TV Town Hall forum is meant to encourage open communication and discussion between Fort Hood leadership and the widely diversified audiences on and off the installation.

Callers can speak to any of the featured panel members on the show. Community members can submit their questions and concerns during the live broadcast by calling (254) 288-4990 during the broadcast.

The TV Town Hall is carried on KNCT-TV, the Public Broadcasting Station located at Central Texas College, broadcast on Channel 46 (local cable channel 4). The show will also air on Fort Hood TV, carried on Time-Warner cable channel 10 on Fort Hood.

Before the broadcast, e-mailed questions are accepted via the KNCT web site at www.knct.org. Click on the "Fort Hood Town Hall" icon and fill out the electronic form to submit a question.
